SUBJECT:— Grant of one elephant and two horses to the Sri Venkataramanaswamivari temple at Tirupati, N. Arcot Dt.

LAST REFERENCE.

A Report ~~Letter~~ No. 85 dated 12th Dec. 1902. form the Dharmadarsee of H.H the Mysore Maharaja's Charities at Tirupati, N. Arcot Dt.

B In his ~~Yadast~~ dated 11th June 1902 to the Dharmadarsi at Tirupati, Prayag Dossji, Mahant of the Hathiramji matt at Tirupati, stated ~~that~~ out of the 5 elephants which used to accompany the paraphernalia of processions &c of Sri Venkataramanaswamy in upper Tirupati, one ~~of them~~ died and requested

May be graciously pleased to make a present of another in substitution. He adds that the request for the gift of two horses is a very reasonable one as it will add to the honors and Dignities already granted by the Sovereign.

From the Copy of the Nirup dated 5th Feby 1819 issued by H.H. the late Maharaja, Krishnaraj Wodeyar Bahadur III, to the Amildar of Mulbagal Taluk, it is observed that fodder & other provisions were directed to be supplied

from the Mulbagal Taluk,
to the elephants, horses
&c presented by His Highness
to the Tirupati Temple.

The order of 1886
referred to in the Dharmadarsi's
report ~~directs~~ sanctions
the sum of Rs 330-15-4 for
the freightage by rail
of the two elephants, and
directs the then Peishkar
to make over them to
the Mahant for purposes
of services in the temple.

From the two papers
above quoted, it is clear
that elephants and
horses have been gifted
to the temple by the ~~Raja~~

Mysore Durbar for services in the Sri Venkataramanaswamy temple at Tirupati.

Upon the application of Rao Bahadur, Arcot Dhanakoti Moodaliar, Dharmakarta of the Sri Arunachaleswarar swami temple at Tiruvannamalai, the late Sri Sheshadri Iyer requested Her Highness the Maharani (the late Regent) that a sword might be presented to the temple which

enjoys a madhuparka
grant of Rs 436 6-0
per annum from the Mysore State, and
one has been sent
from the Palace in January 1901. The
references are put up.

The request that an elephant may be given to the temple at Tirupati
in the place of the one which has died, appears to deserve favorable consideration.
The old records put up show
that elephants and horses
used to be given to the Tirupati
temple from the Mysore State
from the time of Maharaja
Krishnaraja Wadiar III

The last occasion was in the year 1886 when two elephant calves were given from the Palace. One of these having since died, application is made for another in its place.

The question of supplying two horses is also asked for orders.

As it is a point of honour to make such presents to the Tirupati temple, favourable consideration is solicited to the matter —

Submitted to His Highness.

The files submitted herewith relate to the disposal of a cow-elephant which is at present in the possession of the Government. She was formerly the property of Yelandur Jaghirdar, as testified to by Mr. Shama Iyengar; but owing to her escape from the Jaghir, she was caught among the twenty-seven elephants captured in August last. Thus the claim of Yelandur Jaghirdar arises and has to be dealt with. A letter from him is submitted herewith for the gracious consideration of His Highness.

2. In compliance with Sir A. Seshaiya Sastry's request, His Highness was pleased to sanction the gift of a tusker to the Sri Sankaracharya's mutt at Kumbakonam in October 1902. The elephant having unfortunately died in June last, Sir A. Seshaiya Sastry has renewed his request for the gift of a tusker and puts forward a supplemental prayer that a cow elephant also may be presented to the Mutt.

C in the linked file)

3. There remains but one other request to be placed before His Highness, namely, that of the Tirupati Venkataramana Swamy Temple authorities. Out of two elephants presented to the temple by the late Highness in 1886 one died sometime before June 1902. The temple authorities pray for the gift of an ele-phant in the place of the deceased and also request the gift of two horses.

4. While a tusker is preferable to the Kumbakonam Mutt, the one available now happens to be a cow-elephant not un-acceptable to the Temple authorities of Sri Venkataramana Swamy. The latter's prayer is also prior to the former's; and owing to the permanently established munificient charities of the state at Tirupati, that ancient and close connection which exists between reference to the Kumbakonam Mutt.

5. In these circumstances, I can only advise His Highness to sanction the gift of the cow-elephant to the Temple of Sri Venkataramana Swamy. The request relating to the gift of horses may be reserved; and Sir A. Seshaiya Sastry may, as he says, be asked to wait till the State can secure a suitable Tusker for presentation.

Order.

I take it from the Dewan's note that there is no question as to the justice of the Yelandur Jaghirdar's claim to the elephant.

Under the Circumstances I have no objection to the proposed disposal of it. But I should like the precise facts to be made known both to recipient ~~mutt~~ temple, & the public, so that there may be no misunderstanding.

In the other matters I agree.

Submitted to His Highness.

I am afraid I have not been understood clearly in this matter.

My last recommendation was that the Cow-elephant now under dismissal might be presented to Sri Venkatá-ramanaswami Temple of Tirupati. Incidentally I mentioned the history of the elephant and my connection with it as Zoologist of Yelandur and as its former owner. This was necessary as I had to tell your Highness that I did not wish to press my claim in case your Highness was pleased to gift the elephant away. Now that your Highness has decided to give it away I beg to state that the gift should be in your Highness' name and that all concerned should understand it as such. It is unnecessary to decide the nature of my claim to it as nothing will be lost

One of the cow-elephants belonging to my Jaghir was captured in August 1902 by the state authorities; and is now pending disposal.
